

The Students Union at UPES

The Students Union at UPES (University of Petroleum and Energy Studies) serves as a cornerstone of student life and plays a pivotal role in representing the interests, needs, and aspirations of the student body. It serves as a vital bridge between students, faculty, administration, and the wider community, fostering a sense of belonging, empowerment, and civic engagement among students. The importance of the Students Union at UPES cannot be overstated, as it contributes significantly to the academic, social, and personal development of students while enriching the university's culture and vibrancy.

Importance of the Students Union at UPES:

Representation and Advocacy: The Students Union serves as the primary representative body for students, advocating for their rights, concerns, and interests within the university. It provides a platform for students to voice their opinions, grievances, and suggestions on various academic, administrative, and campus life matters. Through effective advocacy, the Students Union ensures that student perspectives are considered in decision-making processes, leading to a more student-centric and inclusive university environment.

Leadership Development: The Students Union offers valuable opportunities for leadership development and skill enhancement among students. By assuming leadership roles in the Students Union, students gain hands-on experience in organization, communication, negotiation, and problem-solving, preparing them for future professional endeavors and civic responsibilities. The Students Union empowers students to become active agents of change and positive influencers within the university community.

Student Engagement and Community Building: The Students Union fosters a sense of community, camaraderie, and belonging among students from diverse backgrounds and disciplines. Through organizing social events, cultural festivals, sports tournaments, and academic competitions, the Students Union creates opportunities for students to connect, collaborate, and forge lasting friendships. These interactions contribute to a vibrant and inclusive campus culture, enhancing the overall student experience at UPES.

Support and Welfare Services: The Students Union plays a crucial role in supporting student welfare and addressing their needs and concerns. It provides a range of support services, including academic guidance, counseling, mentorship, and assistance with accommodation and extracurricular activities. The Students Union also serves as a liaison between students and university administration, helping to resolve issues and navigate bureaucratic processes effectively.

Support for Students Union at UPES:

UPES recognizes the importance of the Students Union in enhancing student life and supports these unions through various means:

1. Institutional Support: UPES provides institutional support and resources to facilitate the functioning of Students Union bodies. This includes allocating funding, office space, and logistical support for Students Union activities and initiatives.
2. Mentorship and Guidance: UPES faculty and staff members provide mentorship, guidance, and advice to Students Union leaders, helping them develop leadership skills, navigate challenges, and implement effective strategies for student engagement and advocacy.
3. Collaboration and Partnership: UPES collaborates with Students Union bodies on various projects, programs, and initiatives aimed at enhancing student experience, promoting campus sustainability, and addressing student welfare issues. Through strategic partnerships, UPES and Students Union work together to achieve common goals and objectives.
4. Recognition and Appreciation: UPES acknowledges the contributions of Students Union bodies through awards, accolades, and public recognition. By recognizing the efforts and achievements of Students Union leaders and members, UPES reinforces the importance of student leadership and engagement in shaping the university's future.

In conclusion, the Students Union at UPES plays a vital role in fostering student engagement, representation, and empowerment while contributing to the overall vibrancy and inclusivity of the university community. UPES's support for Students Union bodies underscores its commitment to student welfare, leadership development, and academic excellence. Together, UPES and Students Union work collaboratively to create a conducive learning environment where students can thrive academically, socially, and personally.

1. Sports Committee:

The role of the sports committee is to promote sports activities among the students. The Sports committee remains active throughout the year and encourages students to participate and excel in a variety of games and sports that are organized regularly at UPES.

2. Cultural Committee:

The committee organizes Recreational activities in the forms of music, dance and other cultural activities which play a pivotal role in the overall development of students. Students in this committee organize the university's annual signature events Uurja and Ignite. Besides these events, technical festivals, and impromptu events by various student chapters/clubs/committees of students are organized.

3. Student Discipline Committee:

The Student Discipline Committee works under the supervision of the Proctorial Board (which handles student discipline on campus and in hostels), and alerts the board to aspects like ragging, substance abuse, road traffic accidents, eve-teasing, racial/ caste discrimination, and gender harassment. These students also act as student volunteers to manage security and decorum during university events and functions.

4. Gender Champions:

Gender Champions at UPES are envisaged as responsible leaders who facilitate an enabling environment within the University where girls are treated with dignity and respect. They strengthen the potential of young students to advocate for gender equality and monitor progress towards gender justice.

5. SEE Ambassadors:

The committee is set up for the individual enthusiasts who enjoy meeting new people, know how to channelize their energy and potential. They also encourage other students to participate, volunteer and support the various events/activities of the university. These student ambassadors are an integral part of exciting projects, campaigns and assist the S.E.E Managers of respective schools to run the flagship events and shows for our students.

6. Safety Rangers:

The University recognizes the importance to sensitize the students on their Road traffic safety, by organizing various activities and events, like screening of documentaries, films of accident survivors, and distribution of handbooks, planned at regular intervals.

7. Socio Squad:

Is group of super active, tech-savvy, confident, enthusiastic and reliable students who work closely with Marketing and Communications department to Promote UPES from a current student's perspective across all digital platforms, multiply brand mentions through their active social presence and to manage online reputation of the brand.

8. Moot Court Committee (School Of Law):

Moot Court means a replica of a real court where legal proceedings and trials take place and thus it is also known as a Mock Court. Where students who are studying law act as professionals and take up all the responsibilities and duties according to their role to see their ability to think creatively and answer convincingly when questioned and show their oratory, writing and persuasive skills. It is one of the modern methods of giving practical knowledge to the students by putting them in a hypothetical situation similar to that of a real court and then the two teams each on one side argue upon fictional cases.

9. Student Council (School Of Business):

The Students' Council is an apolitical organization. It derives all its powers from the relevant authorities of the School of Business, UPES, Dehradun, as defined in the Acts & Statutes of the University and shall be subject to all rules and regulations laid down by these authorities.

The purpose of creating the student's Council:

- Providing a forum of expression to students' opinion
- Developing all-round extra-curricular activities to supplement education; and
- Advancing the general welfare of students studying at the Institute (School of Business, UPES, Dehradun)
- Acting as the central policy-making body for students

10. Health Safety Environment Department- UPES Nursery:

In September 2018 the nursery under the WTPP (Women Technology park project) was converted into UPES nursery. Nursery maintenance committee formed by first-year M.Tech (HSE) under the guidelines of Dr. Kanchan Bahukhandi and Dr. Shefali Arora. Student committee members do the cleaning, plantation, watering and other maintenance.
