About the event

The UPES ACM-W Student Chapter organised AICWiC'25, the ACM India Celebration of Women in Computing, on 1 November 2025 at UPES, Dehradun. It is the flagship event of ACM-W India, which supports and celebrates women in technology.

The event featured talks by women leaders from the technology sector across India on their experiences, and on the opportunities and challenges for women in technology. It also included a poster presentation and was open to students, professionals and others interested in the field.
